

Manfred Malzahn was born in the Federal Republic of Germany in 1955. He studied at the universities of Bochum and Wuppertal, where he completed his PhD in 1983 with a dissertation on the contemporary Scottish novel. After civilian national service at the Goethe Institute in his native town of Iserlohn, Westphalia, Malzahn went on to teach at universities in Scotland, Tunisia, Algeria, Malawi, and Taiwan. In 1998, he joined the United Arab Emirates University in Al Ain, UAE, as a Professor of English Literature.
